Synopsis

Based on a true story - This is a heartwarming and inspiring story of two toddlers who love their dad and are waiting with much excitement for him to come home from work.

What people say about this book

Justin Girard, "Fun family book. Such a cute book about a daddy and his profession! Love that it teaches about hard work and how his kids look up to him."

Gina, "Opens up a new career to children and allows them to gain new knowledge about trees.. I loved the uniqueness of the story and how this book teaches the reader another type of career that they might not realize exists. Many books focus on doctors, policeman, businessman, etc., but a tree climber? Very fun, enjoyable book!!!"

Jessie Ratliff, "Super cute!. Love love love!"

Coralía Guardado, "Love the story. What I like the most is the language, that is very simple for kids to understand, congratulations to the wonderful person who wrote the story"
