Synopsis

Heal your heart by the final page! This spiritual story of love and loss is a dog's memoir on Life and the Afterlife. Told by the canine Jack from the other side of Rainbow Bridge, it is an easy read with short chapters. This book is carefully crafted by the author who has three decades of clinical hospice experience. This first book in the Jack McAfghan Pet Loss Trilogy is designed to walk you through the grief of pet loss one step at a time. Its goal is to heal your grief by the final page. The power in this book is in Jack's sharing the story of his life which begins in a puppy mill. Fate propels him into a heart and soul love story much like your own. You will find that through the pages, Jack's voice is also the voice of your best friend who even now is trying to reach you. They are all working together from the Other Side to help you to heal your heart, chapter by chapter. Our story is your story too. Jack would never lead you astray. He has given you a happy ending, but wait...there IS no end! There is only the beginning of something else. Come. We are waiting for you to join us on a journey to the other side of grief. This honest, heartwarming and spiritual account will touch everyone who has ever loved. It matters not if they have four legs or two. Jack leads us to a higher love by extending himself to every creature of the earth, every human on the planet, every spirit in the universe --- and most of all to the bona fide Master over Heaven and Earth.

What people say about this book

Sally B., "Will Uplift You and Lighten Your Sadness. I wanted to share this with all of you. We will all lose our pets at some point. If we are lucky it will be due to old age. It will not matter, it sucks and hurts, no matter what, when or how. Take a moment to purchase/ download this book. Read it now or later. Whether you are like me and just lost your pet, or you are still grieving a pet lost years ago or anticipating that one day your world will crash down on you when a dear pet leaves, it will uplift you and lighten your sadness. There is also a closed group on Facebook, Jack McAfghan Heart to Heart, where you can find support through this tough time and beyond. The picture is of my beautiful girl, Hannah, who is now with Jack."

Charlene Benedick, "A must read for anyone grieving over the death of their pet. A step in the right direction to heal and love again.. This book is amazing. I purchased it a few days after we put our baby, Duke, to sleep. Duke was my everything. My husband traveled a lot, and so I was alone a lot before we got Duke. Once Duke came into our lives, our whole world changed. Duke was my best friend, my walking buddy, my bed partner (LOL). Duke followed me everywhere, and I talked to him like he was my own child. We moved from coast to coast three times, and he was the one that introduced us to our new friends and neighbors. No one was a stranger to Duke. And he was loved by everyone. I received sympathy cards from our friends on both sides of the US when he passed away... Anyway, I was shattered but I knew enough to know I needed to read this book... I needed some healing. There is something about connecting with a dog... when you know each other's souls so well... that can't be described - unless you are Jack McAfghan. Jack helps heal your broken heart from a beloved dog's perspective. You will cry a little. You will laugh a little. You will think about your fur buddy being gone in a new way... They aren't really gone. They are love - and love knows no boundaries, not living or dying. If you have been loved and given love - it doesn't go away. Thank you Jack, for easing my pain and sorrow. Tell Duke HI for me, and I will see you both someday."

Tiffany R. Smith, "If you love your pet, and now there's a hole in your heart where they used to be, read this book.. Jack..what an amazing boy. When I lost Kona this week, my heart shattered into one million pieces. Kona was my best friend, my entire heart. He was one of my children. We weren't expecting him to leave us yet. We didn't notice he was turning grey, until he was already there. We didn't notice him rapidly slowing down until it already happened. He never let us know he was hurting until he could not go anymore. When I read Jack's story, I saw my story almost to every detail. I laughed, I cried, I sobbed, then I had hope and peace. I still have Kona with me because the incredible bond between him and I. Jack gives us all the hope we could wish for when we lose our babies. I am thankful that this book found me when it did. I wish I would have known my time was getting short with him, but it's funny how our "dogs" because they are way more than that, are so selfless when it comes to us. He protected my heart for 11 years and through Jack, he is still doing that for me. Love you Kona Bear.”

Michele R Freeman, “Must have for anyone grieving the loss of a pet!. This is a MUST HAVE for anyone who has lost a beloved pet. The messages are clear and after 7 months of grieving I have finally begun to heal. I do still grieve but I understand a lot more since reading this book. I highly suggest you buying it if you have lost a pet. It is written by Kate McGahan but told through her dog Jack. 1/31/2016: I am now adding to my first review because I have purchased 12 more books. I plan on giving them to vet clinics, hospitals, and crematories. Anyone who has lost a beloved pet knows that you usually get a sympathy card. How great would it be to get a book that actually helps you heal? A card is just words which provides no healing. This book provides the healing that is needed for those that are grieving. This book has helped hundreds in the past 6 months alone. Give yourself or someone you love who has lost a pet this book of healing and moving forward. I lived with the loss of my soulmate alone and grieving until I got this book. My life has changed in a positive way and I will make it my mission to get it to as many people I can because I know how powerful Jack's message is.”

kate47, “Unforgettable gift of love. I LOVED this beautifully tender, touching, funny, joyful, and uplifting book! I can't stop thinking about Jack and Katie, his master. I've been longing to get another dog since my 14 year old ever-smiling Pomeranian passed last year, but was afraid of the pain of loss again and also my advancing years. This book helped me tremendously. And of course I cried and cried--but tears of joy as well as sorrow. I love the way the author wrote this from Jack's viewpoint. So glad I happened upon Jack McAfghan. I hope you won't pass this one up. It's a genuine gift of an amazing love between dog and master -- from the author's heart to ours.”

Dianna S. Bryant, “Comfort and hope for those grieving over the loss of a dear animal friend..... I lost the battle and could not save my beloved Willow almost four years ago. She was and is my soulmate. She was suffering, we had several veterinarians working on her, she had reoccurring seizures, we were never able to determine the cause. The seizures became worse and worse. I finally made the decision to euthanize her. I had allowed her to suffer far too long.... I held her and kissed her and told her that I loved her while she was receiving the euthanasia drugs. When she took her last breath, I felt like I had taken mine. I have read many books on surviving the death of beloved animal family. Kate McGahan's books are the best and most helpful that I have read. These books will touch your soul. This is book one of a beautiful love story that does not end. If you've ever loved an animal, shared a profound relationship with it and felt that when your beloved friend had died that you were alone and so heartsick that you didn't want to go on....this is a wonderful and an amazing book to give you hope....as Kate McGahan and her beloved Jack demonstrate.... Love never dies....Death is not the end....but the beginning....our beloved animal family continues to visit us and to watch over us....Kate and Jack's books will give you hope and help you to live and be happy once again. Buy this book, read it, laugh and cry and cherish your memories and look for signs from your beloved. This is book one.....so far there are three printed in this series. Get them and find comfort....”

Ebook Tops Reader, “I NEVER write normally write reviews . But these books..... WOW!. I NEVER write reviews but I just have to about this book and the others in the series. I've read samples of 100s of books on Amazon and I couldn't make sense of any of them. And I'm definitely not religious! Or they were just writing about cr*p that was completely useless to my grieving. But this just touched me in a way no other has been able to since I lost my girl in 2017. The Jack McAfghan series of books have helped me so, so much. In a way not even my therapist was able to do! They've made me smile. Definitely made me cry! Made me think and have given me so much understanding. An understanding I've never thought of, but when you pause for a moment and think about it it kinda makes sense. For all 51yrs of my life I've always had more than the one big dog at any given time. Sure losing them causes me heartache but never like this. They say you always get 'that one super special one'. These books are so powerful, thought provoking, truthful yet so gentle. I'm not yet 'OK' and I know I will read them all more than once. If only to reread those chapters I couldn't see properly through the tears of sadness and those read with of a kind of realisation. Jack's words of truth and wisdom And Kate McGahan' writing are bringing me something no other has been able to since that heartbreaking night in 2017. So for that alone Jack and Kate I THANK YOU! If I could give a billion x a billion stars I would !!! #LoveNeverDies” shirley, “Jack mcafghan reflections. This book is beautiful. ive been suffering with a broken heart for almost 3 years after losing my gorgeous spaniel to cancer. I must admit I thought I was losing the plot. id seen things about jack Mcafghan on face book & looked into it. I saw the book reflections written by Kate Mcgahan read a couple of bits out of the book & decided to order it. so glad I did .it has helped me a lot & given me a positive way to help me with my grief & broken heart. I don't read a lot but couldn't put this book down. I have since read the 2nd book & am on the third 1 now I will review the other books separately. If your feeling down & grief stricken I strongly recommend you read this 1st book .5*****” mags, “This has to be the best book ive ever read. Not really sure where to start, but wow what a fantastic book this is. All i can say is that if youve suffered a loss of any kind this book can help you. I recieved it not really being sure what to expect and from the first page i was totally hooked. It takes you on a rollercoaster ride of emotions and helps to see things from a completely different perspective. I can honestly say that my only regret is that i didnt find this book sooner. Im so looking forward to reading the other two very soon xxx”

Mantur, “Beautiful Book. I brought this book a while back because I knew at a grand age of nearly 16 my boys life on earth was coming to an end. I lost my boy on Tuesday and I am absolutely heartbroken however I have sat & read this beautiful book & although it is all still very raw it has helped me start the road to recovery & made me realise what I need to do so that my boy can run free over rainbow bridge. I have downloaded the next two books so I can continue to heal after such a massive lose."
