It's a very special bond between dog and owner that never could be broken. It's a very heart warming book, easy to read and very touching. I have a dog who has saved me from drowning in the bath when I fell asleep.. I was woken up by barking, scratching at the door, he eventually managed to open the door, I always leave the door ajar. The next thing I was aware of was I in a bath of freezing water with my dog barking , scratching at the bath. When I checked the time it emerged that I had been in the bath nearly two hours. I'm convinced he saved my life. He now always sits outside the door while I take a bath.Bless his heart”
